

DayOneNetwork

finding a way for people with disabilities

“New Member on DayOneNetwork’s Board of Directors”

GENEVA, IL – The Board of Directors of DayOneNetwork, Inc. today announced the addition of Brian Sloan to the board.

“Sloan’s professional, educational and personal background allows him to bring a business perspective as well as organizational and interpersonal skills to DayOne,” said Mike Adams, Board President. "It is a pleasure to welcome such a high caliber individual to our board."

Sloan, a local mortgage banker with Old Second National Bank, has a Bachelor of Science in Business (Finance) from Indiana University and a Master of Business Administration (MBA-Finance) from Loyola University of Chicago. In addition, he has a strong interest in the field of developmental disabilities, especially autism.

"I am excited about the opportunity to join the DayOne Board and look forward to working with my fellow board members to help the individuals DayOne is empowered to serve," said Sloan.

Sloan resides in Aurora with his wife and daughter.

DayOneNetwork, Inc. is a community based nonprofit that provides service coordination and advocacy for children and adults with a developmental delay and/or disability in Kane and Kendall Counties, and Hanover Township of Cook County. For more information about DayOne, call Terry Kammes at 630-879-2277 ext. 114.